

Picnic Events & Catering

How our events work

1. Make an enquiry for your occasion stating the required date, time, location and number of people attending.
2. Select which picnic setup you'd like.
3. Select which menu you'd like (we do catering without the picnic setup if you'd prefer this). Pg 7-10
4. Let us know any additional information like dietary requirements or special decor requests.
5. Pre-order your drinks Pg 11-14
6. Pay for your event to secure your reservation.
7. Arrive on the day to a beautifully curated picnic event which has been setup and catered for or let us deliver your food to your preferred destination.
8. Enjoy your picnic experience for 2.5 hours (or longer if you've requested additional time) and leave all the cleaning up and packing away to us!

Travel Charges

The travel charge may vary depending on where your event will be held, how accessible it is, what the parking restrictions are and whether or not we go through a congestion zone to get there. It may also increase depending on the size of the event as we may need more than one van, additional staff or a separate delivery for the food.

Picnic Locations

We can picnic at a venue of your choosing so long as you have the correct license required. If you'd like our assistance in choosing a location that allows picnics like ours, do get in touch to discuss.

Park Fees

Our prices do not include any park licensing fees.

Refundable Deposit

In some cases we may take a fully refundable deposit.

VAT

All prices are excluding VAT however VAT does not apply for takeway food which we deliver to an event where we are not providing the setup.

The Kids Party Package

What better way to celebrate than hosting a fun picnic party for your little one. We not only provide a cute picnic setup but we also take care of all the food too. We can make recommendations for fun entertainers and can also help incorporate a specific theme if you'd like (additional charges will apply).

FAQs

What is the Cancellation Policy?

Once the payment has been made for your event, the date is secured and we are unable to refund any of the funds. If for some reason your event is not able to go ahead we offer the following solutions:

- 1) You may reschedule your event to a new date subject to our availability
- 2) You may use the funds paid as a credit towards any of our other services including: Picnic Experiences (only available April to September), Indoor Events, Corporate Catering, Gift Hampers (this does not include delivery costs or postage)

If you do need to cancel for any reason, for groups of up to 30 people we require notice at least 48 hours before the event and anything beyond this will be subject to a 50% cancellation fee which will be deducted from the value of your invoice and credit towards our other services. For bigger groups please discuss with us directly.

Do you cater for dietary requirements?

We are able to cater for all sorts of dietary requirements and allergens including vegan, vegetarian, dairy free, gluten free and nut allergies.

How long does the picnic experience last for?

You have 2.5 hours to enjoy the picnic experience. We will then meet you back in the park and will pack everything away and ensure all rubbish is disposed. You are welcome to request additional time which is charged at an additional fee (starting at £100 per additional hour).

Can I choose my colour scheme, flowers and decor?

Yes you may but an additional fee will apply. Please request a bespoke quote.

Can I bring my own drinks?

Yes of course. If you'd like us to provide a drinks cooler, ice or glasses, this will be at an additional charge. Please also note that an additional cleaning charge may apply and you will be required to set the drinks up yourself at the start of the picnic.

Can I bring my own food if I only want the setup?

Absolutely. Please also note that an additional cleaning charge may apply and you will be required to set the food up yourself at the start of the picnic.

Do I need a permit to have a picnic in a park or private garden?

Different rules and regulations apply to different locations, please contact the park or venue directly to find out. We accept no responsibility or liability for
